Gubernatorial Nominee Gray of Minnesota Says There Are Two Presidents—Plays Republicanism, (By Associated Press.)

Sank Center, Minn., Sept. 17.—James Gray, Democratic nominee for governor of Minnesota, in a speech at the Stevens County Fair last night, bitterly attacked Campbell, Bullington, Aldrich, the trusts, and declared himself favoring women's suffrage. Gray created a stir when he declared the United States has two presidents, one at Beverly and one at Oyster Bay. Gray declared the latter the real president.

USING MONKEYS FOR SCIENCE.
Rockefeller Institute Takes 200 Little Animals Out of Consignment of 500.
New York.—Two hundred of the 500 chattering monkeys taken from the hold of the Hamburg-American liner Graf Waldersee on her arrival from Hamburg were consigned to the Rockefeller Institute, where they are to be used for experiments in the interests of science—meaning, of course, vivisection. According to the men who make a specialty of importing animals, the institute is a very good customer, and hundreds of monkeys go there each year. Those taken there are to be used, it was said, for "studies of the brain."

The principal demand for monkeys just now comes from showmen, but in winter, according to Louis Rube, the animal dealer, the demand for monkeys from the Rockefeller institute is strong, and it is hard to import enough to meet the demand.

The Graf Waldersee brought in besides 500 Indian and African monkeys, 200 Indian snakes, two ostriches, ten antelopes, and 3,000 birds.

A Beautifully Formed Hand.
The perfect hand is slender at the wrist and broadening proportionately has long fingers that taper to the tips. When the hand is laid flat the tip of the thumb should almost touch the very beginning of the first knuckle of the forefinger. A short thumb is an evidence of a lack of brain. It was Sir Isaac Newton who said: "Show me the imprint of a man's thumb and I will tell you the strength of his mind."

The nails should be thin, oval and pink. To give them an extensively fine polish is bad taste and to make them extremely pointed is to suggest that they are incapable hands. English women have large hands, but usually they are well shaped, white and soft, though firm in grasp. French women have small hands, well formed, but dark; but it is among the Spanish and Italian women that the most beautiful hands are found. In India the hands of the women are beautifully formed, exquisitely dimpled—indeed, have every attribute of beauty; but they correspond in color with the dark faces that belong to their owners.

INCUBATOR DINNER NEW FAD
Rhode Island Farmer Hits Upon Novel Scheme to Bake Beans While Wife is in Town.
Westerly, R. I.—A drummer who invaded the rural districts here a few days ago with the latest brand of fireless cooker for the economy and comfort of the over-worked farmer's wife has left town disgusted, with not a sale to his credit. He found the natives equipped with cookers which, they assert, are far ahead of so-called up-to-date ones.
Walter Russell Ross, a farmer on the post road, is the Moses of the kitchen. A few weeks ago his wife went to town to spend the day. Walter foraged his own breakfast and enough for the help. It was Saturday, and his better-half had left instructions to put the big pot of beans in early and let them bake all day. Walter had some hoeing to do and figured he couldn't waste a day indoors, and the outraged his Yankee brain for an idea.
It came.
He took the pot of beans with the big chunk of pork floating on top out into the woodroom where the incubator stood. Turning up the lamp, he took off the weight on the thermostat and shoved in the pot of beans. Shouldering his hoe, he set out for the field. When his wife returned from town she found the fire out in the kitchen stove and no beans in sight. She prepared a cold supper and a warm welcome for Walter.
Walter hastened to the woodroom, with the wedding wife at his heels. From the incubator he took a steaming hot pot of beans, browned and savory and done to a turn. Afterward he took out a dozen chickens, which the extreme heat had hatched and subsequently well baked. Walter said that the discovery of the usefulness of the incubator more than repaid for the loss of the fowl.
The news of his experiment has spread, until all the farmers' wives now do their week-end baking in incubators.

Our Colonial Trade.
The trade of the United States with its non-contiguous territories for the fiscal year just ended aggregated $190,000,000, according to statistics of the department of commerce and labor. The department contrasts this with the record of 1897, when this trade aggregated only $35,000,000. Statistics show that for 11 months of the last fiscal year the shipments from the United States to Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines, Guam, Midway, Tutuila and Alaska amounted to $75,000,000 and the shipments therefrom to the United States, $96,660,000. This trade, both exports and imports, was larger than that of the preceding year. The largest percentage of gain was in the Philippines, to which the recent tariff act extended the privilege of interchange of merchandise free of duty.

The Boy and His Surroundings.
A boy's room has every chance of being one of the most interesting rooms in the house. It may be a workshop in the basement or in the rear extension, an improvised corner in the open attic or a small study, but if it enters into the spirit of a boy's activities, it is sure to be a good-looking and well-furnished room. The mind is all powerful in the development or elevation of a material, and a boy should early realize this power over his surroundings. There is no material so humble but it can be ennobled through thought.—St. Nicholas.

NINETEEN HURT IN BAD WRECK

ONE MAN KILLED WHEN ROCK ISLAND AND BURLINGTON TRAINS CRASH.

COLLIDE ON HIGH TRESTLE

Accident Occurs Through Misunderstanding of Orders Near Holt, Mo.—Smoker, Filled With Passengers, Tumbles Into Ditch.

Holt, Mo., Sept. 17.—In a head-on collision here of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy No. 6, which left Kansas City at five o'clock for Brookfield, Mo., and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific No. 21, which left Chicago at 11:30 o'clock last night, 11. L. Howard, Brookfield, Mo., was killed and nineteen persons injured. The Rock Island train headed in on the Burlington tracks at Cameron Junction on its way to Kansas City. A misunderstanding of orders by the Burlington crew is said to have been responsible for the wreck. The trains were to have passed at this station.

The accident occurred on a sharp down grade near a bridge, the approach of which was cut off by a high embankment which prevented the engineers from seeing the danger until their trains were almost together. The engine crews saved themselves by jumping, although all were more or less badly injured.

Collide on High Trestle.

The trains crashed together on a high trestle over a small creek and the impact was so great that the Burlington train, much smaller than the Rock Island, was driven off the bridge and back probably 100 yards before the smoker went into the ditch with its car full of passengers. The baggage car and smoker were entirely demolished.

Not one person on the Rock Island train was injured, though the engine was badly damaged. All the seriously injured are Burlington employees, either then at work, or returning dead-head to their homes in Brookfield.

Misunderstanding of Orders.

There is to be a joint investigation between the two roads to find who is to blame for the wreck. It is said the original orders were for the Burlington local to meet the Rock Island at Holt, but it is supposed that later the orders were changed so as to give the Burlington local right of way into Lathrop. The Rock Island conductor had the original orders to meet the Burlington at Holt. The train was 30 minutes late and the engineer was trying to make up time when the two trains met.

Wealthy Hungarian Land Owner Fears Robbery if He Appears to Be Prosperous.

New York.—Wearing the garb of a tramp to give the impression that he is a poor man, Lajos Berrar, one of the wealthiest land owners of eastern Hungary, arrived here the other day on the last lap of a trip around the world. Although over sixty-five years old, Mr. Berrar has never been absent from his frontier home before, and he entertains the idea that America is filled with brigands, that only unceasing vigilance and the avoidance of external signs of prosperity can save him from being robbed before he gets back to Tiszafured, his native town. When he registered at a local hotel with his two companions, both husky six-footers, he gave orders that he was not to be approached by any strangers. One of the two huskies is a nephew of the aged traveler, Michael Berrar, professor of chemistry in a school at Budapest. His other companion is an Italian who acts as interpreter. This man said, explaining the older Mr. Berrar's eccentric garb and customs: "Life on the frontier of Hungary is very primitive, as it lies next to the outposts of Turkey, and the folks there have strange ideas about the other parts of the world. Mr. Berrar has feared all along that if he dressed in style he would be robbed. We have repeatedly begged him to buy new clothing and then visit the harbor, but he clings to his old clothes and ways, asserting that no one would rob a man who did not look prosperous. He has heard strange tales of robberies in America."

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

In these days of unrest and political turmoil, it is easy to overlook the good in our own land. The political dishonesty, the commercial crookedness and crime, is heralded over the country until the atmosphere is charged with it and the impression prevails, to large extent, that all men in public life are dishonest.

The name of the banker, who becomes a defaulter, is flashed across the country and under the sun, while the honest financier goes through a long business career unharmed and unnoticed.

The name of the criminal receives the same degree of attention, and the public servant who goes wrong is never kept in the background.

When the string of Hearst newspapers was started, a few years ago, predictions were freely made that failure would result, but today every last one of them is on the high tide of popularity, while many conservative journals have taken on a tinge of yellow to meet the demands of a yellowed constituency.

The magazines of the land, never more numerous nor more popular than now, find it necessary to cater to the same popular sentiment, and so the muckraker writers continue to flourish.

The constituency which they serve is called a refined constituency because it is supposed to be endowed with a higher order of intelligence.

The long era of prosperity, which the nation has enjoyed, is responsible, in large degree, for this abnormal demand for the sensational. The spirit of the age is fast, and the new generation is crowding so rapidly upon the heels of the old that Old Father Time is pressed to keep pace with the procession.

The man at the White House is too slow for this fast advancing cavalcade which proposes to turn out, not only the racehorses, but everybody else not in sympathy with the forced march.

The years of intelligent and loyal public service on the part of such men as Aldrich, Hale and Cannon count for nothing, and their names are a by-word to the most tolerant, and a stench in the nostrils to the most erratic.

The bar of public opinion is the tribunal of first and last resort, and courts are freely criticized when the verdict is not confirmed.

The loss of confidence in humanity has become a national weakness, and in the favored condition of the public mind we are looking for the bad, and are disappointed if we do not find it, while the good is ignored.

The price of virtue is a single mistake, while reputation hangs on the slender thread of suspicion. A senator goes wrong and the most distinguished body of lawmakers in the land is under the ban. A corporation takes advantage of a monopoly and all corporations are pronounced corrupt. The "big stick" points out the undesirable citizen, here and there, and the verdict is sealed.

Of course the standard of business and political morality has been elevated to a higher plane, during the past decade, and in the light of a quickened public conscience, many practices which seemed right, are now pronounced wrong, but the fact remains that honesty is the foundation of public and private life, and the large majority of mankind ever has been and always will be honest.

The world's great circulating medium is not currency, nor gold and silver, and stocks and bonds but feebly represent its great collateral. The vast storehouses of confidence between man and man is the motive power which supplies the great volume of energy, and when these reservoirs are ruthlessly or heedlessly attacked, the inevitable result is disaster.

The law of common justice recognizes innocence until guilt is proven, while the snap judgment of public opinion today regards men with suspicion and pronounces them guilty without the form of trial.

As a result prosecution and persecution are so closely allied that the difference is hard to distinguish.

A case in point is the packers, now under indictment in Chicago. Some of the men, under a cloud, have been prominent factors in the development of Chicago and the great northwest for half a century. They are honest men whose word on any proposition has always been considered as good as their bond. Yet when J. Ogden Armour says that their business shows a net profit of less than two and a half per cent and that the prosecution is unjust, who believes him?

Confidence is the keystone of the foundation in commercial life, and it is a grave mistake to ruthlessly destroy it. Ninety per cent of the men in business are honest and failures rarely result from dishonesty.

The best governed schools are self-governed, where under wise and intelligent supervision the boys and girls are placed on their honor and encouraged to govern themselves.

The world is not so bad as it seems, and in the light of more conservative and thoughtful action, it will be discovered that many innocent people have suffered through snap judgment, just now so popular, as the result of agitation and frantic appeals to prejudice and ignorance.

A correspondent lately returned from India, has this to say of conditions in that benighted land:

"The unrest of India is largely a matter of wages. Suppose you had to work for 1 to 2 cents an hour? Suppose you could have only one square meal every day and night after night your family should go to bed hungry? These are the conditions of millions of Indians. Suppose they existed at home? Would we not have an unrest with a vengeance?"

"I have before me a list of the wages the natives are paid. I take them from the statistical abstract sent by the viceroy to the British houses of parliament, and therefore, reliable. At Calcutta carpenters, blacksmiths and masons are now receiving less than $1 a month; and that would be a high average for mechanics throughout Hindustan. In the Province of Oude they are paid less than $3, and at Agra only $1 more.

"At Patna able-bodied farm hands receive less than $2 per month. For this they work twelve hours a day and in some cases have to take grain for their wages. The average income for all Hindustan is only about 4 cents a day. Not long ago there was a famine in Southern India, during which the government relieved the people by giving them labor on public improvements. It paid 4 cents to the diggers and 3 cents to the women who carried the earth from one place to another in baskets. They worked from daylight till dark. The children were paid 2 cents a day. They were used to break up the clods and smooth over the ground."

It is an old saying that "half the people of the world don't know how the other half live," and it is well to take a day off occasionally and thank God that the accident of birth placed us on American soil.

The thing which concerns us most is not the three dollars a month, but the eight-hour day, for all over the land, labor of all kinds is in demand, and compensation, in every case, is more than a pittance.

What we need to cultivate, as a people, is a sense of appreciation. The good things of life have been so freely bestowed that we take them as a matter of course, and the dangerous doctrine that the world "owes us a living" is more or less popular. We owe the world and humanity the best service that we can possibly render, and when this thought is fully recognized there will be less criticism and a larger appreciation.

"Look up, not down," "Look out, not in," and the clouds of unrest will disappear like dew in the morning sun.

Convincing Reasons, If True.

The administration has listened to the discussion on reducing the size of American paper money, and decided to make no change. There are two good reasons for the decision—one that very few would favor smaller sizes for bills; the other that very many decidedly object. The decision evidently is a wise one.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Every Little Bit Helps.

A writer in one of the current magazines argues that while money was doubtless spent to help secure the election of Senator Lorimer, the latter probably had no guilty knowledge of the effort which was put forth in his behalf. Even if this is so, however, the senator would help to show his integrity by lending whatever assistance he can to the detection of those who actually connived at corruption.—Oak-kosh Northwestern.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

THEY CALLED HIM "STINGY."

You cannot always tell what is inside of a man by looking at him.

There was David Ranken of St. Louis, who died the other day.

Fifty years ago Mr. Ranken went to that city at the age of twenty-five from Hays, Iowa, and by wise investments in real estate he made a big fortune.

You would not have known that Mr. Ranken was a rich man by any exterior evidence. He was as common as an old shoe.

Ranken was a bachelor and maintained a small office of one room without stenographer or secretary. He walked to his office every day.

His home was and had been for many years a couple of rooms over a grocery store in the wholesale district.

It was known that Ranken was well fixed financially, and people sometimes wondered what he would do with his money. The old gentleman kept his own counsel and shrank from publicity.

Some of his friends thought he was a miser.

Young men would sometimes point him out to their friends and call him a "tightwad."

And then one morning not long ago the people of St. Louis awoke to find that they had a philanthropist among them.

Mr. Ranken had given his entire fortune of $3,000,000 to the endowment of a school of mechanical trades for the practical training of poor boys whose educational opportunities are limited, but whose industrial usefulness might save them from poverty or crime.

Mr. Ranken's project was planned with the same careful forethought that distinguished his prosperous business, and educators say it will be a great success.

St. Louis entertained an angel unawares.

Carnegie and Rockefeller give away a part of their wealth to escape "the abstinence of dying rich," but this quiet old man gave away his all before he died, reserving only a bare subsistence.

Not you cannot always judge by outside appearances.

Mr. Ranken had for fifty years endured hardships and eaten short dinners and put up with plain surroundings, holding in his heart a great life's purpose, making heroic but quiet sacrifices to carry out his beneficent plan.

Judge not lest ye be judged.

Cure for Crying Children.

An ingenious employment of the phonograph, by the way, was suggested by an inventor some time ago. This was for curing children of the habit of crying upon the slightest provocation. The child is made to cry into the instrument, and when he is calm the record is served up before the whole family. It is said to be a perfect cure.

SEVEN VICTIMS OF A MUSHROOM CALLED "MOCKER"

SPECIMENS OF WHICH WERE GATHERED BY GEO. CHARLTON NEAR INDIAN FORD.

BIG SCARE ON HIGH STREET

Physicians Were Busy Until A Late Hour Last Evening—Fungus Was Confused With Edible Armillaria Melia.

George D. Charlton and some of his neighbors on South High street feasted on mushrooms yesterday and a few hours later Dr. J. W. St. John and F. H. Welch were hurrying to the scene and inquiries were being made for Haver J. Slavens and Horace McElroy, the two best known local authorities on mycology. In most of the cases "returns" began to come in about 120 minutes after eating, though M. T. Riker, who resides at 152 South High, did not "feel funny" until he lighted his twilight cigar about seven o'clock. Cramps, nausea and vomiting were the symptoms and fears of the "deadly Amanita" were responsible for a general scare all along the line.

Worst Scare Set At Rest.
As a matter of fact, the Amanita Phalloides and Amanita Verna, both regarded as deadly, are found in this region, but they are exceedingly uncommon according to the local mycologists. And as for the Amanita Muscaria, Mr. McElroy says that he has never seen it in the immediate vicinity, though he has had specimens from Kilbourn and Hartland. Moreover, the effects of poisoning from any of the Amanita family do not make themselves apparent until from six to ten or more hours after it has been taken in into the system. So welcome reassurances could be given at the very outset.

"Mockers" Caused the Trouble.
Upon examining the rejected specimens in the bushel basket which Mr. Charlton had brought to town, the Messrs. McElroy and Slavens found the collection to consist of Honey Mushrooms (Armillaria Melia) and in almost equal numbers—members of the species "Mockers" (Clitocybe Nidulata) which have some similar characteristics. The "Mocker" contains a minor poison but is not deadly. It is phosphorescent and under certain conditions a single specimen will sometimes throw out a strong enough light for one to read by. When people eat it with impunity but as a general proposition it is advisable to let the fungus severely alone. However, it is to be found growing around the same stumps as the "Honey Mushroom" in variable shapes, sizes and colors. Some of Honey Mushrooms examined were not in a good state of preservation and it is pretty generally known that one risks unpleasant consequences in partaking of any of the "fodder" family when they are not in prime condition.

Victims All Recovering.
Mr. Charlton and Mrs. Mary W. Kelly were the ones who partook most freely of the "Mockers" and who suffered the most in consequence. The doctors were busy until eight in the evening, using atropine as an antidote. All rapidly regained near normal condition after the first effects were off, though some of the elderly were not feeling "extra good" today. The list of victims includes the following:
GEORGE D. CHARLTON,
MISS MABEL CHARLTON,
MISS CHARLOTTE CHARLTON,
EDWARD E. SPALDING,
MISS MARY W. KELLY,
LITTLE MISS SPALDING,
M. T. RIKER.

THINGS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW IN THE BIG WINDOW SHOW

Exposition of Janesville Products Will Be a "Street Fair" on Lines Worth While.

That the great "Made in Janesville" display which has been planned and is being carried to success by the Industrial and Commercial club will be a big event in the history of Rock county is a foregone conclusion.
As one manufacturer said to his advertising manager after hearing the proposition from Mr. DeArmand: "Now I want you to go into this thing right and I want to see you fix up the best display of our goods that has ever been attempted. We want ours to be the best display; now it's up to you."

A display such as the one Janesville will hold on September 29-30, and October 1 has just been finished in Davenport, Iowa. The Davenport Times in commenting on it says: "Last night proved a remarkably good night for the show. A steady stream of people passed up and down the streets until late in the evening. They displayed much interest in the exhibits and such expressions as, 'Why I didn't know this was made in Davenport,' 'I have to try that,' were heard on all sides. It was estimated that over 10,000 people were out on this first night."

In the few cities that have had such exhibitions, everyone connected with them have been more than satisfied with the interest and results shown.
At this early day it is evident that many hundreds of out of town people will be in Janesville during those three days. There is no question but that the displays will be worth coming miles to see.

Visitors at Fair: About seventy-five from this city attended the Green County Fair at Monroe today.

Fines Were Paid: Oliver Street, sentenced to jail for six months for petty larceny, was released last night when his fine of $113.14 was paid by a son-in-law named Cook of Fontana. Richard A. Feldt of Edgerton, sentenced to forty-five days in jail for giving liquor to a black listed person, was also freed upon payment of his fine of $25 and cost.

Auto Was Stranded: A high ridge of macadam, thrown up by a grading plow on South Main street, between South Third and Oakland avenues, was the cause of a peculiar accident last night. Dr. Charles Sutherland, while driving his auto south on that thoroughfare, struck the ridge and his machine was stranded high in the air with none of the wheels touching the ground. The driver escaped without injury and the machine was only slightly damaged.

ROY SLAWSON AND MORRIS HOLLERAN HELD AS ROBBERS

Janesville Young Men Under Arrest at Waukegan For Alleged Hold Up Last Night.

Charged with holding up and robbing a Waukegan resident of $8 and a gold watch last night about half past ten, Roy Slawson and Morris Holleran of this city are under arrest in Waukegan, according to a telephone message received at police headquarters today from the sheriff of Waukegan county.

Both protest their innocence but their stories are so conflicting that the sheriff got into communication with the authorities here for the purpose of getting their records. It is said that while they did not have the watch in their possession when arrested, they were caught in the immediate vicinity of the alleged hold up directly after it happened and the arresting officers are positive that they have secured the right men. Slawson and Holleran state that they had been at the state fair and were on their way home when seized.

Particulars furnished by the local police concerning the prisoners' record in this city do not reflect to their credit. Slawson was fined for assault and battery Aug. 4, 1909, after having been implicated with several others in the robbing of John Kelly on S. River St. His companion has been in court on numerous occasions for minor offenses.

PAPERS FILED IN IMPORTANT SUITS

Center Street Case Will Be Argued Next Monday Afternoon—Edgerton Liquor Ordinance Assailed.

Papers in two important suits were filed with the clerk of the circuit court today. The first of these is the suit brought by J. J. Kelly against the members of the common council to restrain them from laying a new roadbed on Center street. An injunction was secured Sept. 3 and the case will be brought to trial Monday afternoon, Judge Grimm returning from a western trip at that time. Attorney John Cunningham represents the plaintiff and City Attorney Maxfield the defendants.
The other suit for which papers have been filed is that brought by William and August Strickler, retail liquor dealers of Edgerton, against the mayor and common council of the said city, to determine the validity of an ordinance regulating the sale of liquor in that city which was adopted June 7, 1910. Jeffris, Monat, Smith and Avery represent the plaintiffs.
Divorce actions have also been started by Mable Johnson against Timothy Johnson and Anna Simonson against James Simonson. The first plaintiff is represented by Attorney W. H. Doherty and the second by J. J. Cunningham.

CABINET WILL JUDGE CASE

DALLINGER'S COLLEAGUES TO ACT AS JURY AND SETTLE HIS FATE.

WILL MEET SEPTEMBER 26

Secretary Will Resign at Once If Associates Find Him Guilty of Any Wrong Done Against Government or People.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The attitude of his cabinet associates at the meeting of the cabinet here September 26 will depend whether Secretary of the Interior Hallinger will resign his portfolio or retain his position indefinitely—or at least until the reports of the investigating committee are submitted to congress.

Mr. Hallinger is coming to Washington, his friends insist, wholly unconscious of any act on his part either of commission or of omission for which he should be condemned, and has determined to force his chief and his official colleagues to be, in effect, his judges.

If they concur in the view at present attributed to Mr. Taft, that the accused secretary shall be punished as an innocent and persecuted man, he will retain his position. If they fail to do back him up he will resign.

Dickinson Will Escape.

At the first meeting of the cabinet after the summer recess Secretary of War Dickinson, the Democratic member, will not have returned from the Philippines, and therefore will be saved the embarrassment of participation in what is regarded as largely a problem of Republican policy.

The meeting is expected at least three days, and the president expects to clear up a number of important matters, but it will surprise no one here if the Hallinger case occupies a large part of the time.

Rumors have been constant and decidedly definite here during the last few days to the effect that Mr. Hallinger's resignation would be one of the first developments of the cabinet meeting; but his friends, including his associates in the interior department, have refused to believe that he would retire "under fire," and have pointed to his oft repeated declaration to the contrary, and to the recent statement attributed to him that he would resign only at the specific request of the president.

Some of these, however, admitted themselves and the secretary to be alive to the fact that the turmoil and uncertainty into which the protracted controversy has plunged the department must be ended soon unless this important branch of the public service is to become hopelessly demoralized.

Dallinger Slaps at Critics.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 17.—Richard A. Hallinger, secretary of the interior, made this statement in a luncheon speech:

"I don't care what anybody says about me so long as I am conscious of doing my duty, not only as a private citizen, but as a public officer. The man who pursues the course that seems to him to meet the obligations of his place in life has no need to fear about the future."

FRIENDS TRUE TO HIS MEMORY.

Dead Man Receives Large Vote in Madison County (Ill.) Primary.

St. Louis, Sept. 17.—In the Madison county (Ill.) primary 1,000 votes were cast for a man who died more than a week ago. James Lane of Edwardsville, candidate for clerk of the probate court, succumbed to a paralytic stroke a week ago Wednesday in the midst of a heated campaign.

Although Lane's death was common knowledge, the newspapers of southern Illinois having devoted considerable space to it, the candidate's friends remained true to his memory and voted for him. For a time it looked as if he would be nominated. Final returns, however, show that he was defeated by John P. Beck of E. Edwardsville.

POET'S WIFE SEEKS A DIVORCE.

Richard Le Gallienne is Sued in New York by His Spouse.

New York, Sept. 17.—Richard Le Gallienne, the English poet who has been living here for several years, has been sued for divorce. A summons has been served on him, and it is expected the case will be tried soon. The information came by way of Paris, where Mrs. Le Gallienne has a milliner shop at 1 Rue des Fours. Her counsel, Lyle E. Smith, of 115 Broadway, confirmed the story.

Dies After Month's Sleep.

Davenport, Ia., Sept. 17.—Mrs. Albert Rathmann died at her home in LeClaire, Ia., after a month of comatose sleep that baffled the physicians of the state. A fortnight ago she was declared dead and an undertaker summoned to the house, but soon after his arrival she resumed breathing. Now she is thought to be surely dead.

Grain Firms Suspend.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 17.—The J. I. Wright Grain company, one of the biggest cash grain concerns in St. Louis, has suspended business. J. I. Wright gave out a written statement that the business had been conducted at a loss for several months, and that it had been decided to suspend to protect creditors.

BOUTELL TO RUN INDEPENDENT.

Congressman Defeated at Primaries Starts Campaign for Re-election. Chicago, Sept. 17.—Congressman Henry Sherman Boutell will run as an independent candidate for re-election in November. His defeat at the primaries for the nomination by Frederick H. Gansberg has neither satisfied nor discouraged him, and he declared that not only would he run independently but he would win "hands down."

His campaign already has been started. Congressman Mann's plurality in the Second district was 4,030. Joseph R. Burres, insurgent Republican, ran up a total of 3,976, while Louis J. Bonham received 1,348.

In the fast Democratic contest in the Fourth district, Congressman McDermott pulled through with a plurality of 664. Senator Edward J. Riney was second with 2,688 and William E. Forlong third with 1,027.

Congressman Foss in the Tenth district won over his insurgent opponent, George P. Dingelard, by a plurality of 1,503.

Richard J. Finnegan's plurality in the three-cornered contest on the Democratic side in the Tenth district was somewhat larger.

Final returns from the Eleventh district gave Col. Ira C. Copley of Aurora, insurgent Republican, who defeated George W. Conn, a plurality of 503.

CHANDLER'S PACT GIVES DIVA ALL HE POSSESSES

Lawyers File Cavalieri Agreement Showing Ante-Nuptial Act of New Yorker.

New York, Sept. 17.—As the first step in negotiations now in progress for a compromise between Robert Winthrop Chandler and Lina Cavalieri, the much-heralded ante-nuptial agreement was recorded in the register's office. It is classed as a conveyance under the sub-title "miscellaneous." Similar record will be made in Poughkeepsie, because farms in Red Hook are involved in the transfer.

The agreement recites that in consideration of the intended marriage and of the sum of $1 that Mr. Chandler gives to Mme. Cavalieri "all those three farms, known respectively as Cole farm, Chowell and Benna farm in Red Hook, N. Y., approximately 250 acres and subject to a mortgage of $300,000."

The agreement further provides that Mr. Chandler turns over to Mme. Cavalieri the land and buildings in New York city situated in several parts of the city, comprising in all thirty pieces of property, and concludes, "and all other realty forming part of the share of the above named Robert Winthrop Chandler of and in the estate of the late Mrs. Laura Delano, subject to a mortgage of $140,000."

The agreement further provides that Mr. Chandler agrees to pay the yearly sum of $20,000 to Mme. Cavalieri during her life, by four quarterly installments of $5,000 a quarter, the first of which shall be paid within thirty days from the marriage.

It was agreed that the property of each of them, both present and future, should remain the separate property and under the sole control of each of them.

To secure the payment of the $20,000 yearly Mr. Chandler in the agreement gave his bride power to collect the amounts due, if otherwise unpaid by him, out of the money coming to him from the income of the Chandler estate trust fund.

New $10 Counterfeit.

FERRY CREW "TOO BRAVE."

Inspector Declares Pera Marquette Heroes Might Have Escaped.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 17.—The men who went down on the Pera Marquette in Lake Michigan last week were too brave, according to Capt. C. H. Westcott of Detroit, supervising inspector of steamboats. He returned from a trip of investigation into the sinking of the car ferry. "They were too brave," the captain said. "They had taken every precaution to leave the ship, but stuck to their posts too long. The ferry lost her deck the day of the disaster apparently in the heat of condition. It was declared the last inspection was made in two hours, showing gross negligence. This is not the case, as I proved. The inspectors went aboard about dinner time and worked until nine. Anything wrong would have been discovered. Had the ferry been sinking we should have known it."

PREPARE FEDERAL SUGAR WAR.

Wickersham and Wise Confer on Draft Sult Against "Trust."

New York, Sept. 17.—Attorney General Wickersham and the United States district attorney, Henry A. Wise, had a prolonged conference at the headquarters of the bar association concerning, it is said, the complaint in an action to be brought by the government for the dissolution of the American Sugar Refining company.

This complaint will be much broader in its scope than the Sherman anti-trust complaint, which was based on the civil suit for $30,000,000 damages instituted by the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company against the American Sugar Refining company after the closing of the Philadelphia refinery.

A Rain-Trap.

In a time of distressing drought, says a writer in the Yorkshire Daily Post, a harassed amateur agriculturist stepped into a shop to buy a barometer. The shopman was giving a few stereotyped instructions about indications and pressures, when the purchaser impatiently interrupted him. "Yes, yes," said he, "that's all right, but what I want to know is, how do you set the thing when you want it to rain?"

Hard Fate.

There is no one so miserable in the world as the unprepared man, the un-equipped man.

To Make a Home.

What do you include when you think of housekeeping? If you take it to mean merely the work of the house, which could be accomplished by a hired servant, then perhaps it does not matter that you should miss such things as opportunity for thought, daily reading, etc., says Home Notes. But if you make housekeeping mean home-making and home-keeping, the formation of a home into a center for the life of the soul and spirit as well as of the body, then you must cultivate your mind, not keep it always to the level of the mundane things of life.

The Face and Fashion.

Each nation has its own particular kind of face, and somehow fashions adapt themselves to it. No dress that is obviously French looks suitable on an Englishwoman, and no dress that is distinctly English becomes a daughter of Gaul.—Lady's Pictorial.

Bread and Butter.

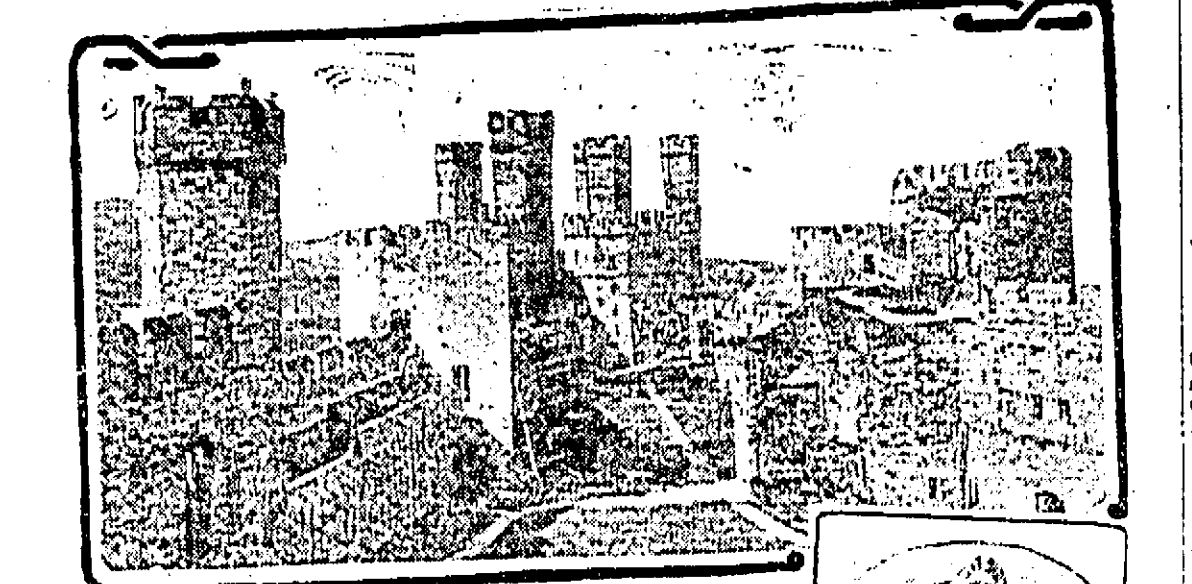

There is no place in which bread and butter can be so beneficial or poisonous as in the nursery. The worst thing you can give a young baby, under a year old, is bread, says a writer. But later on bread becomes useful. It should never be given new to a child at any age, but stale bread or toast, or bread baked crisp in the oven, is excellent for children. They really want more crisp foods nowadays, and if this fact was taken to heart the next generation would suffer less from decayed teeth and weak digestion.

London—For the first time in centuries the investiture of the prince of Wales will take place in Wales itself, and this has caused a hot contest between two Welsh cities, Carnarvon and Cardiff.

Welsh chiefs. This was in 1301; when he was 17. The date of the building of the castle and the Eagle tower is proved by the pay sheets.

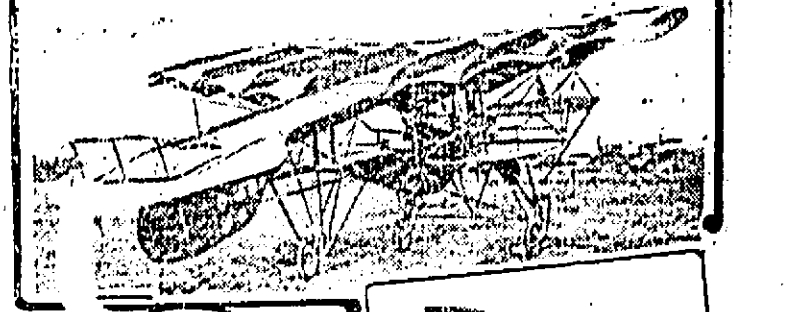

When the Black Prince was invested a Prince of Wales, the ceremony of coronation was held by a parliament at Westminster, the prince being crowned with a gold chaplet the shape of a garland, having a gold ring placed on his finger and having a scepter of silver given into his hands. In later instances a scepter of gold was substituted for the one of silver.

Blood has not yet been spilt, but much ink. The old spirit of the Cymry, with their tenacity of tradition, their local pride, their sturdy adherence to myths, which count for more than facts, has been stirred to its depths, and the pages of old histories are being turned over to prove that Carnarvon has a better right than Cardiff, or Carmarthen, than Monmouth, or Llandovery than Pembroke, or Harlech than any one of them.

To settle the difficulty of the rival claims for the investiture, a royal progress over valleys and mountains would be a happy idea. It seems fair that the loyalty of the people of the old British race who buried the bodies with the last Lowelins should be rewarded by a little more pageantry from English kings.

World Interest Centers in International Aviation Tournament to be Held Next October.

New York.—The success of the New York International aviation tournament which is to be held this year in America, with Glenn H. Curtiss as defender of the world's title of champion aviator, is assured of success in advance. Belmont park will be the scene of the second international tournament ever held. Every country interested in aviation will have its own representative on hand to attempt to wrest from Curtiss the coveted prize which he won last year at Rheims.

Belmont park is admirably situated, affording adequate transportation facilities and a large expanse of ground for the bird-men to start on their air journeys. The financial and technical upholding by such prominent men as Allan A. Ryan, president of the committee on aviation; August Belmont, Cornelius Vanderbilt, John Jacob Astor, Otto H. Kohn, George W. Parsons, T. P. Shonts and others equally well known in financial circles.

TRIAL OF BEEF BARONS

TO BEGIN NOVEMBER 14

Prosecution Issue Subpoenas for 25

Witnesses, Much to the Surprise of Packers' Counsel.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—The trial of the ten meat packers of Chicago, indicted on the charge of violating the Sherman anti-trust law, will begin November 14. This was made known when

Deputy United States marshals were issued twenty-five subpoenas with instructions to serve them upon those persons who testified before the federal grand jury that brought in the true bills against the beef barons.

The news came as a distinct surprise to the lawyers for the defense.

All the subpoenas are returnable on

Nov. 14.

It was reported that additional indictments will be returned when the jury resumes its sessions next Monday.

Morrison, J. Ogden Armour, the three

Swifts, Edward Morris, Edward T.

Allen and the others under indictment as individuals, have made all of their plans for a vigorous defense and their lawyers say they are ready for the fray at any time. Several consultations have been held and the counsel for the defendants say they can see nothing but an acquittal.

It was rumored in the federal building that the government lawyers, two of whom, Pugh and Wilkerson, are here from the attorney general's department in Washington, are drawing the additional indictments which it is believed will be voted and signed on Monday.

Unusual secrecy has been a feature of the investigation thus far and members of the staff have received special instructions not to discuss present grand jury work upon pain of dismissal.

tance and Cost of Efficient State Administration" on the afternoon of the opening day and during the following afternoon Mr. Whitehead will talk on the American Board of Missions. On Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, the program will be devoted to the consideration of the Socialistic movement. The first address will be given by Carl D.

Thompson, city clerk of Milwaukee, on the subject, "Christian Elements in the Socialistic Movement." Mr.

Thompson is to be followed by an address by Rev. Fred Staff of Grand Rapids on "The Church and Socialism." Mr. Staff is regarded as one of the brightest men in Wisconsin

Congregaionalism, and the program for that particular evening will certainly attract widespread attention.

The last evening of the convention is given over to a men's banquet.

C. HAYES REPORTED

DEAD IN OKLAHOMA

Janesville Contractor, Working in Oklahoma City, Said to Have Been Robbed and Murdered.

Considerable anxiety was felt in this city for Cornelius J. Hayes, a member of the contracting firm of C.

J. Hayes of this city, who is in Oklahoma City where he is working on the erection of the plant of the former Janesville Granite Brick &

Stone company, which was moved from this city. Mr. Hayes left Oklahoma City on some business and E.

L. Corley, one of the officials of the company, not knowing his whereabouts, became anxious when Hayes did not appear and notified the authorities that he feared the contractor had been murdered and robbed, as Hayes had fifty dollars on his person Sunday. Newspaper dispatches from Oklahoma City said that the police were trying to solve the mystery of Mr.

Hayes' disappearance, and relatives were, on learning of the report, wired for particulars, and a few hours afterward a message was received stating that he had returned to Oklahoma City.

WISCONSIN VALLEY R. R.

HAB CHANGED ITS NAME

Proposed Janesville to Merrill Line to

Be Operated by Chicago & Wisconsin Valley Street Railway Company.

In order to obtain certain rights, which as a railroad company would be denied it, the company formerly known as the Chicago & Wisconsin

Valley Railroad company has changed its name to the Chicago & Wisconsin

Valley Street Railway company. The proposed line will be built from Janesville to Merrill, Wis. Articles of incorporation under the new name were filed with the secretary of state on Thursday by Allen T. Russell, Thomas

W. Potts, G. T. Wiswall, and J. E.

Jones. The new company is capitalized at $25,000 in 250 shares of $100

each. A franchise has been applied for at Madison, but the attorney for the company requested the council of the Capitol City to postpone taking any action on the franchise ordinance.

"NO FRILLS"

Just Sensible Food Cured Him.

Sometimes a good, healthy common-sense traveler suffers from poorly selected food and is lucky if he learns that Grape-Nuts food will put him right.

A Cincinnati traveler says: "About a year ago my stomach got in a bad way. I had a headache most of the time and suffered misery. For several months I ran down until I lost about 70 pounds in weight and finally had to give up a good position and go home. Any food that I might use seemed to madden me."

"My wife hardly knowing what to do, one day brought home a package of Grape-Nuts food and asked me to try it. I told her it was too bad for me to try it but I tried a little and they just struck my taste. It was the first food that I had eaten in nearly a year that did not cause any suffering.

"Well, to make a long story short, I began to improve and stuck to Grape-

Nuts. I went up from 135 pounds in December to 191 pounds the following October.

"My brain is clear, blood all right and appetite too much for any man's pocket book. In fact, I am thoroughly made over and owe it all to Grape-

Nuts. I talk so much about what

Grape-Nuts will do that some of the men on the road have nicknamed me

'Grape-Nuts,' but I stand today a healthy, rosy-cheeked man—a pretty good example of what the right kind of food will do.

"You can publish this if you want to. It is a true statement without any frills."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville, in plain, "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

LOYAL TO FAITH

Pay one year in advance for The Daily Gazette, the subscription to apply at the end of your present subscription. It matters not whether you are paid up in advance now, pay still further in advance. You will want The Gazette anyway, so why not have it paid up. THE MAP IS COMPLETE IN EVERY DETAIL. SIZE 18x23 INCHES. Probably the only large map of the county that is published at the present time. Suitable for framing. Makes an excellent office map, or for the home. It shows the cities, towns, villages, railroads, townships, school houses, churches, country roads, lakes, streams, and the shape and size of each farm. If your subscription to The Daily Gazette is already paid in advance, pay another year in advance from the date of expiration of your present subscription. Send your money in NOW as the supply of maps may be exhausted.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, September 17, 1870.—Jottings.—The Mutuals have gone to Elkhorn today to play a game of baseball.

Indications are favorable for a large supply of fall butter from this vicinity. The recent growth of grass is affording excellent pasturage for cattle.

The celebrated running horses, Linerick Boy, Canada, Prairie Lilly, Twenty Cents, and Demitree, are in the city, and will run at the Southern Wisconsin Fair to be held here next week. The horses are so well known here that any statement regarding their respective merits would be useless.

The brick work of the Baptist church is about completed, and the "consecrating" has given the building a much better appearance. It has been performed at an expense of about $500, and the money could not have been invested to a better advantage, for a well finished exterior was necessary to correspond with the elaborate workmanship displayed on the interior appointments. The spire is to extend some ninety-three feet above the tower but probably will not be built until spring.

Janesville people "pasture" their cows in the street.

YOUR UPSET, SOUR, GASSY, STOMACH IS RELIEVED IN A FEW MINUTES.

Take a Little, Diapapain now and your Stomach will feel fine in five minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapapain in the house as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapapain, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapapain is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery at any drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach trouble.

HIS ENERGY WAS WASTED

Inebriated Gentleman Is Perplexed Over Occurrence on Street Car.

He was tall and he was lanky and he was inebriated. He carefully negotiated the curb and pulled solemnly at a dead cigar as he boarded a crowded street car. He leaned limply against the tailboard and gazed vacantly out into space over the heads of his fellow-passengers. As the car jerked forward he lurched backward and split himself between the rails. The kind conductor gathered him up and anchored him safely to a window bar. He looked around him in wrinkled perplexity and at last he spoke: "Cillion!" he asked of the small man on whose toes he was standing. "No, sir," was the reply. "Wheel, wheel broke?" was his next query. "No, sir," answered the little fellow. A silence, then. "Splosion?" he inquired. "No, sir," said the short one. More silence. "Smatter, then?" he queried potently. "Nothing, sir," meekly returned his victim. "Nothin' smatter!" he ejaculated with a frown; "I'd known that I wouldn't get off!"

The Wonders About Us.

Let not care and humdrum deaden us to the wonders and mysteries amid which we live, nor to the splendors and glories. We need not translate ourselves in imagination to some other sphere or state of being to find the marvelous, the divine, the transcendent; we need not postpone our day of wonder and appreciation to some future time and condition. The true inwardness of this gross visible world hanging like an apple on the bough of the great cosmic tree, and swelling with all the juices and potencies of life, transcends anything we have dreamed of superterrestrial abodes.—John Burroughs.

A NOVEL GOOD SAMARITAN

He Carries on a Great Work Among Criminal Classes Under Cover of Silence.

Somewhere in this broad country of ours there is a man quietly and silently working among the fallen and degraded ones of earth and accomplishing wonderful results. He is a man of stern initiative with great courage of conviction and the methods he uses in doing his work are simple and essentially logical.

For years he has been moving among criminals of all descriptions, raising them to a respectable position and starting them again along the path of virtue. His method, a little peculiar, is very simple. He meets the criminal on his own level, extracts a confession from him, gets his confidence and treats him as an equal. For drug addicts, drunkards and that class of criminals he obtains medical treatment, establishes them in good physical health, gets them a job and places them on a footing level with the active, self-respecting world. They respect this treatment and treat him square in return, and seldom ever do they go back to their former life of crime.

This kind of work, our novel Good Samaritan considers recreation and adventure, and the good works he has done along these lines can never be estimated. Seldom does he fall in converting a case and the most unique side of his methods is that he entertains these poor fallen ones at his home with all the honor and respect due to men and women of honor and good reputation. The drunkard, drug fiend, safe cracker, burglar and professional crook are all represented among his converts.

The strangest thing about this man is that he refuses to let his whereabouts or identity be known in the general public. He prefers to work silently and unknown to fame.

Law is a sort of bonus poem, science, which smiles in your face while it picks your pockets.—Charles Mocklin.
